

STARS SKATING CLINICS with Nicole Kirnan-Hall & Donnie Kirnan, Jr

Nicole Kirnan Hall was a member of the St. Lawrence University women's hockey team from 1997-2001. In her senior year, Kirnan served as an assistant captain on the SLU women's team that lost in the first ever NCAA National Championship game. During her playing career, she was invited to participate in several USA Olympic festivals and competed on the USA Junior National team in 1996.

Nicole served as the head coach at Manhattanville College in Purchase, New York from 2002-2006. During her tenure, the team evolved into a national powerhouse, making NCAA tournament appearances in each of her five seasons at the helm. Also during this time, she was selected as a coach at the USA Olympic festival. In her time as a collegiate head coach, Nicole represented the ECAC hockey league as their liaison on the NCAA Championships committee. Simultaneously, she held the position of NCAA Compliance Coordinator at Manhattanville College, serving as a liaison between the college and the NCAA.

In 2006, Kirnan Hall completed her master's degree in Sports Business Management at Manhattanville College. She holds an undergraduate degree from St. Lawrence University, where she was a dual major in Economics and Sociology

Kirnan Hall currently owns the 1000 Island Privateers hockey team in the professional Federal Hockey League. Additionally she owns a hockey camp, clinic, and private skating lesson business.

Donnie Kirnan, Jr has been involved in hockey for over 30 years. He played hockey at SUNY Potsdam University and served as the Head Coach for the Empire League 2006/07 season and served as the Assistant Coach for EJHL & Empire Leagues teams since the 2007/08 season. Donnie has worked with many former Syracuse Stars players on their shooting with some of them playing in the NHL.
